Effect of withdrawal

If you withdraw from this contract, we will reimburse you for all the payments we have received from you immediately, or at the latest within fourteen days from receiving your notification to withdraw. Reimbursement shall include delivery costs, but not additional costs incurred if you have selected a different delivery method than the method we offer for the contract, which would have been the lowest standard rate. We will use the same method of payment that you used in the original transaction to reimburse you unless expressly agreed otherwise. You will not be charged any fees arising from the reimbursement.

You are bound to return any goods from us for the purpose of the contract immediately, or at the latest within fourteen days after notifying us of your intent to withdraw; these materials include training materials in paper or digital form, or on CD-ROMs or DVDs. Dispatching the goods before the period expires will be enough to keep within the fourteen-day period.

We will bear the costs of returning the goods. You will only need to cover any diminished value of the goods where the loss is due to improper handling as revealed in an inspection on the condition, characteristics and function of the goods.

We will require commensurate payment for any services you requested to begin during the withdrawal period pro rata for services already rendered up to the time at which you have informed us of exercising the right to withdraw compared to the total scope agreed in the contract.
